Enry Mottola

Born in Venice and Milanese by adoption, I began my career in the 1990s as an advertising creative at Armando Testa. In the early 2000s, I fell in love with Fine Art photography, working as a creative director on projects with Gian Paolo Barbieri, Aldo Fallai, and Tiziano Mailes.

Photography has always been part of my life, and for the past several years, travelling around the world as a filmmaker, I have constantly sought new inspiration for unique and iconic photographic projects.

In 2025, I received the 1839 Awards NYC Gold Award for Storytelling Photographer.
